GOOD NEWS Week of August 12, 2018

Dear (Contact First Name),

Since moving to the Cape, I appreciate even more deeply the special bond that many grandparents and grandchildren have. It is so clear when you look at how the two generations interact. There is a tenderness and spirit of inquiry which is contagious. And it's not just between scientists and their relatives. It's between artists and writers, engineers and chefs, boat builders and business people. It's between those who have decades behind them and those who have decades ahead.

This summer this tenderness and inquiry hangs in the air, refusing to let go of each other. Not giving into the pressure of appointments or homework; not being crowded out because of wanting or needing to be somewhere else instead of right there. It just hangs in the air as another member of the family.

In the end and at the beginning, it's a gift; one for which we will give special thanks on this Sunday, August 12th.

Please know we look forward to celebrating this special bond with you in person, or if you are not able to be with us, in spirit to be sure.

With deepest gratitude,

- Deborah

- The foundation for the rear addition has been completed and framing has started for the addition;
- The excavation for the retaining wall has been completed and is prepped for concrete
- A meeting has been held with a company regarding the AV equipment for the large meeting room on the second floor; and bids will be received on same;
- We are still in the process of receiving bids for the retaining wall veneer stone work and expect that once all of that is received, it will be reviewed by the FCBC.

NEW PARISH AND COMMUNITY CENTER - Capital Campaign Update

We encourage you to visit the new campaign page on our website

(<http://www.churchofthemessiahwoods-hole.org/capital-campaign>) where you also will find the link to the video, Back to Our Future, that we created with Woods Hole Videographer Brian Switzer.

In terms of the campaign itself, as previously reported, the pre-project costs plus the actual contracts total about $2.3 million and that is our revised campaign target. We expect that the furnishings, some excluded elements of landscape and hardscape and lumber price escalation will bring the total cost to $2.5 million, so that is our stretch goal. With $1.6 million from Phase 1, we are pleased that against the Phase 2 goal of $700,000, we are over $300,000!

We continue to develop our campaign outreach to the community, foundations, and grant sources and are beginning to send out update letters and a new brochure with campaign materials. As progress becomes ever more visible at the construction site, we expect new interest, excitement and support!

We welcome your questions and suggestions. We are deeply grateful to all who are supporting this project that is central to effective service to the parish and to providing new opportunities to the wider community.

WOODS HOLE INSIGHT MEDITATION GROUP: Mondays, 3- 4 PM in the Stone Church

The weekly insight meditation group that meets on Mondays from 3- 4 PM is now gathering at the entrance of the Stone Church in the newly created open space. The group is open to any and all in the community. The format includes 10 minutes of introductions, 30 minutes of sitting, time for questions, a closing loving kindness meditation for 10 minutes and an opportunity for people to gather informally afterwards. On occasion, we have a half hour discussion on meditation practice after our sitting for anyone who wishes to attend. Our leaders include several people who are experienced meditators and have done some teaching. I welcome this opportunity to continue to open our doors to people in the parish and community who wish to spend quiet time together at the beginning of the week. Please speak with me if you have any questions. - Deborah

The following is the text of Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's sermon at the Prayer of Vision, Witness and Justice near the T. Don Hutto Residential Center in Taylor, Texas on July 8, 2018.

And now in the Name of our One Loving, Liberating and Life-Giving God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Before I share just a few thoughts I want to thank, ya'll are in the sun, they'll be few trust me. I want to thank all who have made this possible, Megan and Bishop DeDe and Winnie, all who have made this possible and I want to say a special word of thanks to this community, to those who have helped to get permits so that we might make our witness of prayer and faith in decency and in order. And I just want to say a word of thank you to the Mayor and the Mayor Pro Tempore who came to welcome us.

Allow me to say we do not come in hatred. We do not come in bigotry. We do not come to put anybody down. We come to lift everybody up. We come in love. We come in love because we follow Jesus. And Jesus taught us love. Love the Lord your (God). And love your (neighbor). Love your liberal neighbor. Love your conservative neighbor. Love your Democratic neighbor. Love your Republican neighbor. Love your Independent neighbor. Love your neighbor who you don't like. Love the neighbor you disagree with. Love your Christian neighbor. Love your Muslim neighbor. Love your Jewish neighbor. Love your Palestinian neighbor. Love your Israeli neighbor. Love your refugee neighbor. Love your immigrant neighbor. Love the prison guard neighbor. Love your neighbor!

We come in love, in love. I would submit that the teachings of Jesus to love God and love our neighbor is at the core and the heart of what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ. And we must be people who reclaim Christianity from its popular modality, from the way it is often perceived and presented to a way of Christianity that looks something like Jesus! And Jesus said, love God and love your (neighbor). We come in love. That is the core of our faith. That is the heart of it. And we come, because we are Christian and the way of love calls for us to be humanitarian. It calls for us to care for those who have no one to care for them. And we come because we don't believe that a great nation like this one separates children from their families. We come because we believe that this nation conceived in liberty, dedicated to the proposition that all people are created equal. We believe that we must call this nation America back to its very soul! We are here because we love this nation. 'Cause if you really love somebody you don't leave them the way they are. You help them to become their best selves. We are here to save the soul of America. Save the soul of America!

Now let me unpack it briefly this way. If you want a symbol for America, fly into New York City sometime. I'm not talking about New York City itself as the symbol of America. It's a nice place, but I don't know about that. I mean it is a wonderful place, good people, but the harbor, if you fly over the harbor, depending on your approach, and I do it all the time, usually because I'm coming from Raleigh, North Carolina. I have to look out the left side of the airplane, and when I do as the plane is making its approach into La Guardia airport, you'll see a large, green statue. It is a statue of a woman and she has a torch in her hand, lifted up, and a book in her hand, and on that book are inscribed the words, July 4th 1776. We must save the soul of America by calling America back to its core, to its core values which it hasn't always lived up to, but the values are there nonetheless. And on July 4th 1776, if I remember my history correctly, on that day was issued a Declaration of Independence. Now we're friends with Great Britain now, but back then we had some issues. And on the day, in the Declaration of Independence, you will find these words, "We hold these truths to be self evident, that all men" - all people, all people - "are created equal."

Not just American people, no, but all people, wherever they come from. People from Honduras, people from Mexico, people from Costa Rica, people from Venezuela, people from Asia, people from Africa, people from Europe, all people are created equal. All!

Now I think that's America. And then the text goes on in the Declaration of Independence, "all people are created equal, and they are endowed by their Creator," not by Congress, not by a parliament, not by a potentate, not by a president, endowed by the Creator, "with certain unalienable" - unalienable rights, that cannot be abridged or cannot be amended because they derive from God! Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, THAT'S the American way. We come in love. We come because we believe in loving your neighbor. And we come because we love America and we want America to be true to her highest self.

But let me go on because I really am coming to the conclusion. On that same Statue of Liberty there is a poem that was composed by Emma Lazarus. And these are the words, I'm not making this up, it's on the Statue of Liberty. You can't get more American than that! So American hear me well! On the Statue of Liberty these are the words:

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,

*With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch in her hand.
Her flame is the flame of imprisoned lightning.
And her name -*

Hear me America -

*Her name is Mother of Exiles. From her beacons hand
Glow world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air bridged harbor that becomes the twin great cities.*

And this is what she says:

*"Keep ancient lands your storied pomp!" she cries,
"Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shores.
Send these the homeless, the tempest tossed to me,
I lift my torch before the golden door."*

America! America! Means welcome! Welcome! Come God's children! America means welcome. We come because we are people of love. We love those who seek refuge from war and violence and hardship. We come because we want America to truly be great. Alexander de Tocqueville came and spent time in the United States in the 19th century. He traveled the land, and met and listened to the peoples of the land, the indigenous people of the land. The other people who weren't indigenous, or natives, who immigrated to the land - help me somebody - all the folk he got to meet, he met slaves and free slaves, met native Americans and their folk, met European Americans who had come here, fleeing famine, fleeing persecution, he met the peoples of America, and de Tocqueville wrote, and I quote, "America is great because America is good.

Let us make America great again, by making America good, by making America kind, by making America just, by making America loving! Let us make America great again!

God love you! God bless you! And don't you quit, and don't you get weary! God bless you!
